Court cases hold up 60 mts work on Irwin Road

- Two property owners approach High Court against demolition move
- We are ready to complete road widening work but our hands are tied: MCC

Mysuru, Dec. 2 (RK&BCT)- Only two properties extending up to 60 metres have to be demolished to realise the full benefits of a widened and a beautified Irwin Road. The Mysuru City Corporation has not gone ahead with the demolition as the building owners have approached the Karnataka High Court.

Only a portion of the stretch — from Railway Station to Ayurveda College Circle — has been widened and the 850-metre stretch of the road from Ayurveda College Circle to Arch Gate on B.N. Road is pending. Of the pending works, 60-metre drain has to be constructed and 70 metres have to be asphalted.

Motorists forced to traverse on the bad patch of the yet to be widened Irwin Road stretch.

Though over 70 percent of the demolition and widening of the road has been completed between the Arch Gate till the City Railway Station (Babu Jagjivan Ram Circle), the 450-metre stretch from Government Ayurveda College Circle till Nehru Circle (Lashkar Police Station) is the bone of contention.

Among the contentious properties is the Jumma Masjid which was built by Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar in 1927 and now owned and managed by Wakf Board and a private building owned by an advocate. Both of them have approached the High Court against the demolition.

Earlier, the entire stretch from the Arch Gate till the Railway Station was only 28-ft wide and now the stretch (except for 60 metres where demolition is pending) has a width of 60-ft (18 metres) including footpath.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, MCC Zone 6 Development Officer Manjunath, who is also the in-charge Assistant Commissioner for the Zone said that the MCC's hands were tied due to the legal tangle.

"Works are almost complete and we are ready to complete the project. We have spared no efforts to convince the property owners but they are not relenting. The MCC has already paid a compensation of Rs. 3.5 crore to the Wakf Board but still they have approached the High Court," he said.

City witnesses slew of protests

Mysuru, Dec. 2 (RKB&DM)- City witnessed a slew of protests today with four associations holding demonstrations at two venues for different causes.

As part of a nationwide strike, members of Karnataka State Construction and Other Workers Federation staged a protest in front of the Deputy Commissioner's (DC) Office seeking fulfilment of various demands.

The demands included implementation of provisions of The Building and Other Construction Workers (Regulation of Employment and Condition of Services), Act, 1996, saving of Labour Welfare Board, measures to check rising prices of construction materials, reduction in GST on construction materials, preference to registered local construction workers in construction contracts, mandatory holiday on Sunday for all workers, appointment of Labour Inspectors in all Taluks, holding of Tri-quarterly meetings for ensuring safety, health and welfare of workers, payment of Rs.3,000 lockdown relief announced by the Government to all applicants, raising of compensation to Rs.10 lakh in case of death at work-spots and financial assistance of Rs.5 lakh for construction workers to build their own homes.

Federation President V. Somashankar, office-bearers H.M. Basavaiah, M. Manjunath, Shekar, Swamy and others took part in the protest.

In another protest at the same venue, members of BMS (Bharatiya Mazdoor Sangh)-affiliated Ideal Jawa Employees Association staged a demonstration seeking payment of all statutory monetary benefits that are due to them. Maintaining that the city's iconic Ideal Jawa factory was shut down in 1995, the protestors contended that statutory benefits has amounted to Rs.10 lakh for a majority of employees since then whose claims were rejected for unfair reasons.

Association office-bearers Kunnikannan, S. Shakuntala, wife of late employee Gyaneshwar, Abdul Hamid and others took part.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The holy season of Advent has begun. Advent is the time to open our hearts to welcome Jesus Christ in simplicity and humility. It's a preparatory period of four Sundays, leading up to the Nativity at Christmas. It is marked by a spirit of expectation, waiting, preparation and longing. The word 'Advent' is derived from the Latin word 'adventus', which means 'coming'. It is the solemn preparation for the arrival of Jesus with prayers, fasting, spiritual exercises, good works and holiness of life. This sacred period is observed as a time of preparation for the celebration of the birth of Christ at Christmas, December 25. This long waiting period of four Sundays and weeks, helps the faithful to reflect upon the Word of God, sacred mystery, devotion and ceremony. It is waiting in expectation of Jesus, the Son of God, who comes as a human being to love, forgive and share with humanity his divinity. He is the image of God's love to humankind.

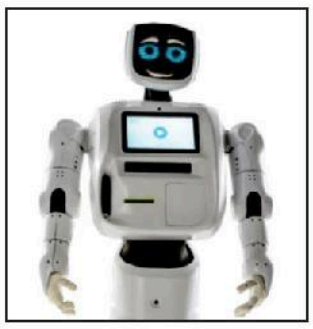
Man suffers collapsed lung while singing

Changsha: A 25-year-old man ended up in emergency room with a collapsed lung after straining himself while singing karaoke at a friend's birthday party.

The young man from Changsha, in China, decided to show off his voice by singing a song with high-pitched tones. When he reached the highest pitch, he felt a sharp pain in his chest which made him cut his act short. The pain was bearable and so he didn't pay much attention to it.

When he woke up the next day, Wang had difficulties in breathing, and was rushed to a hospital. An X-ray showed that he had suffered a potentially life-threatening condition. Doctors told the man that he strained himself to reach the high notes while singing and he used so much force that air sacks in his right lung burst, causing air pockets.

Company to pay 2 lakh dollars to use your voice



Moscow: Russian robotics company Promobot recently announced plans to buy the rights to use someone's face and voice on its robots forever for the price of 200,000 dollars.

Known for producing hyper-realistic, human-like robots, Promobot is currently developing "a humanoid robot-assistant which will work in hotels, shopping malls and other crowded places." The Russian startup announced that it is ready to pay 200,000 dollars to anyone willing to transfer the rights to their face to Promobot forever.

The company clarified that it will accept applications from people of all races and genders, with the 'age 25 and over' being the only requirement mentioned.

Disney gets woman Chairman after 98 years

Washington, Dec. 2 (UNI)- For the first time in its 98-year history, Walt Disney has elected a woman as its Chairman.

Susan Arnold

Citing a statement issued by the Walt Disney on Wednesday, BBC reported Susan Arnold, who has been a Disney Board member for 14 years, will succeed Bob Iger at the end of this year.

Iger stepped down as Disney's Chief Executive in 2020 after 15 years being in the role. He will be leaving the company by the end of December.

"As I step into this new role as Chairman of the Board, I look forward to continuing to serve the long-term interests of Disney's shareholders and working closely with CEO Bob Chapek as he builds upon the company's century-long legacy of creative excellence and innovation," Arnold said in a statement.

For last eight years, Arnold had been an executive at Carlyle Group. Her appointment comes as large companies are moving away from management structures where the Chief Executive and Chairperson roles are held by the same person after pressure from corporate governance experts, investors and in some cases, regulators to separate the two key positions, BBC reported.

Obstruction to motorists on public roads

Sir,

I would like to highlight that people constructing new houses and repairing are freely occupying public roads by constructing ramps and extending compound walls and staircases at the free space left between the road.

Local authorities never bothered to take necessary action against those occupying the road and free space thus causing obstruction to motorists on public roads. One such encroachment can be seen in Hebbal 2nd Stage. The ramp is constructed dangerously occupying $^1/_4$th of the width of the tar road (which is about 10 feet wide) and almost 2 feet is occupied by both sides of the houses. The road suddenly narrows down which may not be noticeable by road-users especially in the dark. This can be very fatal for two-wheeler riders. I request the authorities concerned to immediately look into this, so that motorists can drive safely.

Primary and Secondary Education Minister visits SVYM Centres

Minister for Primary and Secondary Education B.C. Nagesh at a School run by SVYM.

Mysuru, Dec. 2- Minister for Primary and Secondary Education B.C. Nagesh visited Swami Vivekananda Youth Movement (SVYM) Centres at Mysuru, Saragur, Jaganakote, Kenchanahalli and Hosahalli in H.D. Kote on Nov. 27 and interacted with the staff and students of SVYM.

First he visited SVYM's Viveka Tribal Centre for Learning (VTCL) at Hosahalli and experienced the forest-based school, its open classrooms where students learn through experience and textbooks. He was happy to learn that 525 students are educated as per the curriculum and provided skill training through various programmes and the IBT (Introduction to Basic Training) centre of the school.

The Minister said that his tedious journey on bad roads leading to VTCL was forgotten as soon as he entered the pristine environment of the school.

He lauded Dr. R. Balasubramaniam, Founder, SVYM, for realising Swami Vivekananda's dream through VTCL where a bright future is created through holistic education.

School Principal apprised the Minister of the difficult task of getting children from the community to school and ensuring their retention.

Stating that many recommendations of the National Education Policy-2020 have already been adopted in VTCL, the Minister appreciated the fact that they are being implemented well.

SVYM's Head - Education Sector, S. Praveen Kumar briefed the Minister on adopting the recommendations of NEP-2020 in not only Schools run by the organisation but also in Government Schools where SVYM has interventions.

Nagesh also visited Jaganakote Prakruti Food Products Centre run by tribal women entrepreneurs and interacted with them.

He then visited SVYM's Viveka Rural Learning Centre at Kenchanahalli, where he was apprised of all the different trainings imparted to rural women and youths.

He also visited SVYM's Viveka School of Excellence, Saragur, Viveka Pre-University College, Saragur and the Science Exploratory Park at Saragur, a first-of- its-kind park where students are made to explore and discover science for themselves first and later taught the formal way.

Later Nagesh visited SVYM's rural radio station Janadhwani which caters to tribal and rural populace on local issues for 14 hours daily. At Vivekananda Memorial Hospital in Saragur, he appreciated the facilities available to tribal population.

CEO of SVYM Dr. G.S. Kumar, Head - Education Sector S. Praveen Kumar, Director of Vivekananda Memorial Hospital Dr. Dennis Chauhan and Head of North Karnataka Sector K.S. Jayanth accompanied the Minister during his visit.

SVYM is a development organisation engaged in building a new civil society in India through its grassroots to policy - level action in Health, Education and Socio sectors for 37 years. SVYM works in all the districts of Karnataka and touches the lives of over 3 million people.

India has become a global leader: Acclaimed writer Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa

Prakash Belawadi conferred 'Dakshina Kesari' Award

Mysuru, Dec. 2 - Maintaining that the society cannot be corrected or transformed by staging plays and dramas, acclaimed writer and Saraswathi Samman awardee Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa said that arts were meant for mental peace, entertainment and happiness.

He was speaking at the Kannada Rajyotsava programme organised by Lions Club of Mysore South at B.V. Karanth Rangachavadi in Rangayana premises on Monday, during which 'Dakshina Kesari' Award was conferred on renowned theatre personality and Director Prakash Belawadi.

Contending that Indianness has died because of thrusting of left-oriented stories and plays on us by so-called intellectuals, Dr. Bhyrappa said that communist ideologies propagate only destruction and not construction.

Noting that Russian Model of Communism which prevailed since the time of Jawaharlal Nehru turned the country to a debt-trap, he said that irrelevant and faulty leftist policies forced us to kneel before the World Bank for financial aid.

Arguing that our weakness also hit our intellectuality and literature, he opined that this led to our inferiority complex coming to the fore. But now things have completely changed and the country can boast of being a global leader, he said.

Pointing out that the country is now self-sufficient in almost all aspects and India is exporting food in large quantities to several countries, he said that it required so many years for the country to stand tall among the comity of nations of the world.

Stating that he had almost forgotten about his own novel 'Parva' until it was reminded to him by Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa and Prakash Belawadi, who turned it into a marathon and popular play, he said that he was thankful to the two theatre stalwarts for making 'Parva' famous across the State.

Prakash Belawadi, who was conferred with 'Dakshina Kesari' Award, said that Dr. Bhyrappa stands tall more than any awards or prizes.

Pointing out that Dr. Bhyrappa's greatness can be measured by the translation of almost all his novels and works into other Indian and foreign languages, he said that Jnanpith Award is not given by the Government but by a national newspaper and great writers like Dr. Bhyrappa does not need such awards.

Observing that 'Parva' is an ocean of knowledge, Belawadi said that the adaptation of the novel into a play was a big challenge and they were successful in overcoming all challenges in the making of the play.

Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa, in his address, echoed Prakash Belawadi's observations and said that Dr. Bhyrappa's 43-year-old 'Parva' is very much relevant even today.

Recalling the journey of Mysuru Rangayana over decades, he said that it is not a simple matter to translate 'Parva' into numerous foreign languages.

Asserting that such an honour is a crown for Indian literature, at a time when the State is celebrating 'Kannada Kayaka' year, Cariappa opined that likewise, 'Parva' Kannada play has contributed in its own way for global theatre.

Dr. Bhyrappa, Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa and Prakash Belawadi were felicitated on the occasion by Lions Club.

A documentary on 'Making of Parva' was also screened.

Lions Club of Mysore South Immediate Past President K.K. Mohan welcomed. Club President Ln. B. Smitha Devaiah presided.

Secretary Ln. Vinod Rashinkar, Treasurer Ln. Shilpa Santhosh, Members Ln. N.V. Sathish, Ln R.G. Shankar, Ln. Sathish Babu, Ln. Ishwar Hegde, Ln. Soma Prabhu, Ln. Ananth Kumar, Ln. Antony Smith, Ln. Manjunath, Ln. Rishab Dev, Ln. Shwetha Jambe and others were present on the occasion.

Minister assesses rain damage at Lakshmipura

Rs. 1 lakh immediate relief for house collapse; total compensation raised to Rs. 5 lakh

Mysuru, Dec. 2 (MK&BCT)- Revenue Minister R. Ashoka visited Lakshmipura in Mysuru taluk yesterday where extensive damage has been caused to houses due to incessant rains. He met the families that have lost houses and directed the District Administration to disburse compensation immediately.

After a house collapses, an immediate relief of Rs.1 lakh has to be paid and the remaining money can be paid after completely assessing the damages. He claimed that Rs. 318 crore has been disbursed as compensation across the State wherever houses have been damaged and wherever crop loss have occurred.

He said that the role of middlemen in providing relief has been eliminated and after the paperwork done by the village, taluk and district authorities, the money is directly credited to the bank accounts of the victims.

All Deputy Commissioners (DCs) have been asked to release timely payments to people affected by rains and floods, he said, adding that DCs of all districts have Rs. 681 crore in their personal deposit accounts.

Rs. 5 lakh compensation would be paid if a house is completely razed to the ground. Earlier, Rs. 3 lakh was being paid for this and now the money has been increased to Rs. 5 lakh, he revealed.

Chairing a meeting at the DC's Office on rain relief and COVID situation, Ashoka said that the State is likely to seek Rs. 1,100 crore as relief from the Centre for damages caused during the recent rains. "The report we have to submit to the Centre is getting ready. We may ask for Rs. 1,100 crore as relief," he said.

The memorandum seeking compensation under the National Disaster Response Fund (NDRF) norms will be submitted in three to four days. According to preliminary data, the recent deluge has resulted in 26 people losing their lives, 5.81 lakh hectares of crop loss and 2,339 km of damaged roads.

Officials say these figures have been updated and are being compiled. Karnataka received 142 mm rainfall in November against the 39 mm it gets on average, which is nearly a 263 percent deviation from the norm.

Pointing out that the Government has so far released a crop loss compensation of Rs. 318.87 crore to 4.61 lakh farmers, Ashoka said, "Earlier, it used to be paid once a month or once in three months. We have introduced a new system to pay input subsidies to farmers. We are now making immediate payments in instalments that are released once every three or four days."

On COVID and the imminent threat of Omicron, the Minister said that the Mysuru District Administration has been asked to be ready with 2,000 beds including 1,720 oxygenated beds and ICU beds to handle the rush in case there is an outbreak.

During the first and second wave, there were only 100 to 150 oxygenated beds in Mysuru and this has been increased to 1,700 to face future outbreaks, he claimed.

Lovers commit suicide

Mysuru, Dec. 2 (RK&KS)- A 24-year-old youth and his 20-year-old lover, have committed suicide at a city lodge on Nov. 30 night leaving a death note behind.

The deceased have been identified as Satish, a resident of Gundlupet and Varalakshmi, a resident of Nanjangud town. While Varalakshmi was pursuing her Lab Technician course at a private college in city, Satish, who had completed his graduation, was preparing to take up competitive exams. They are said to be distant relatives.

As their relationship came to be known by their family members, their parents had advised them to study well, get a good job and then think of marriage, it is learnt.

Assuming that their parents were opposing their marriage, Satish and Varalakshmi, who came to city on Nov. 30 evening, took a room on rent at a lodge on Ashoka Road. They had told the lodge manager that they were newly-wed and had come to Mysuru on some work.

At about 8 pm, Satish, who had gone out returned to the lodge along with food. But as the two did not come out of the room even after 11 am the next day, the lodge staff peeped through the window only to see Satish hanging and Varalakshmi lying lifeless on the bed. Varalakshmi is said to have consumed poison.

Soon, the lodge staff informed Mandi Police, who rushed to the spot and got the door opened using the duplicate key. On inspecting the room, the Police found a death note, which read, "We have decided to end our lives as our family members opposed our love."

Mandi Police, who conducted mahazar, registered a case and shifted the bodies to MMC&RI mortuary, where post-mortem was conducted and the bodies were handed over to the family members.

Boatmen rescue young lovers from suicide pact

Nanjangud, Dec. 2 (KS)- Two young lovers, who had jumped into Kapila River in a bid to end their lives, have been rescued by a few boatmen near the bathing ghat on Wednesday.

While the girl is a resident of Hebbasur village in Chamarajanagar and a minor (17 years), the boy has been identified as 19-year-old Abhi of Somwarpet, also in Chamarajanagar. The girl is pursuing her studies at a College in Chamarajanagar and the boy is employed at a petrol bunk.

As the girl's parents came to know about the relationship, they had sent her to her grandmother's house. Depressed over this, the two had decided to end their lives. Yesterday, they reached the bathing ghat of Srikanteshwara Temple in Nanjangud and jumped into Kapila River.

A few boatmen, who saw the two jumping into the river, managed to rescue them from drowning. As the two had swallowed water and fell ill, they have been admitted to the Taluk Hospital. A case has been registered at Nanjangud Town Police Station.

Man hacks woman to death

Accused Eeranna

Nanjangud, Dec. 2 (MC&KS)- A man allegedly hacked a woman to death with a machete and has also reportedly attacked those who came to the rescue of the woman besides trying to attack Police staff, who had rushed to the spot. The incident took place at Naviluru village in the taluk yesterday night.

While the deceased has been identified as Ningamma (50), the accused is 35-year-old Eeranna, a relative of the deceased.

Yesterday night, a quarrel broke out between Ningamma's family and Eeranna's family and when the matter escalated, Eeranna reportedly brought a machete and struck Ningamma repeatedly causing severe bleeding resulting in Ningamma breathing her last on the spot.

A few villagers, who rushed to the rescue of Ningamma were also attacked by Eeranna with the machete resulting in villagers identified as Suresh, Mahadevamma, Gowramma and Mahadeva sustaining injuries. The injured have been admitted to Nanjangud Government Hospital.

Meanwhile, Nanjangud Rural Sub-Inspector Shivananjashetty, Circle Inspector Lakshmikantha Talawar and staff, who rushed to the spot, were also attacked by the accused with the machete and luckily the Police personnel managed to dodge the attack and finally arrested Eeranna.

It is learnt that Eeranna, who had murdered his wife, was sentenced to jail and after coming out of jail, he is said to have married Ningamma.

Coconut tree climber falls to death

Manju

Bannur, Dec. 2 (KS)- A 38-year-old man, who had climbed a coconut tree to pluck coconuts at Bannur, died after slipping and falling from the tree yesterday.

The deceased is Manju (38), a resident of Ganiganakoppal near Bannur. He leaves behind his wife, two daughters and one son.

Yesterday afternoon, Manju had climbed the coconut tree behind Bannur Town Municipal Council Office. Meanwhile, deceased Manju's wife in her complaint to Bannur Police has stated that, her husband was taken to pluck coconuts from the tree grown in the premises of a prayer hall. As precautionary steps were not taken, her husband fell from the tree and lost his life. Holding the management of the prayer hall responsible for her husband's death, the woman has urged the Police to get her compensation from the prayer hall management.

Two go missing from city

Rehana Banu

Prashanth

Mysuru, Dec. 2 (KS)- In separate incidents, a woman and a man have gone missing from city.

In the first incident, a 28-year-old woman, who left her house on Nov. 24 at about 6 pm, has since gone missing, according to the complaint lodged by her husband Mubarak with Udayagiri Police. The missing woman is Rehana Banu.

Those having any information about Rehana, may contact Udayagiri Police Station on Ph: 08321-2418309.

In the second incident, a 39-year-old man, who left home for work on Nov. 30, has since gone missing, according to the complaint lodged by his wife Leena with Hebbal Police.

The missing man is M.L. Prashanth. He is 5.6 ft. tall, wheatish complexioned, round faced, well built, speaks Kannada, Hindi and English, has a scar on his right arm and was wearing a white coloured full arm shirt and blue jeans pant at the time of going missing.

Prashanth, along with his brother Pratap had opened a private agency by name 'Om Enterprises' and following COVID pandemic, the agency is said to have suffered loss which had left Prashanth depressed.

On Nov. 30, Prashanth, who left for his office, has sent a WhatsApp message to his mother-in-law and others asking them not to search him. He has gone missing since then.

Those having any information about the missing man, may contact Hebbal Police Station on Ph: 0821-2418318 or call Police Control Room on Ph: 0821-2418339, according to a press release.

Jinxed work on Kodava Heritage Centre

Looking at Parsis, Kodavas may introspect

Rathi Vinay Jha

Madikeri, Dec. 2- Rathi Vinay Jha, former Secretary, Union Ministry of Tourism, in an article in the Coffeeland News Weekly, published from Madikeri, Kodagu, in its 26th November 2021 issue, has regretted the inordinate delay in completing the Kodava Heritage Centre civil work and wondered why Kodavas did not resonate to this work like the Parsis did. Here is an extract of the article in this context:

"Around 2003, I envisioned the need to initiate a project to set up a Kodava Heritage Centre. It was a time when Kodagu was slowly opening up to tourism. I felt that setting up a Heritage Centre would be ideal to showcase stories about our people, our history, customs and traditions. It would also be a research and documentation centre where our diaspora and our children could reach out to for information on the homeland.

That is how the story began. In 2004, the Ministry of Tourism granted the Tourism Department of the Government of Karnataka, Rs. 5 crore to develop a number of sites in Kodagu like Raja Seat, Gaddige, Iruppu Falls, Abbi Falls, Nalknad Palace etc. And the project for a Heritage Centre on a budget of Rs. one crore was part of these plans for tourism development. In fact, a similar grant was made for the Parsis to set up a Heritage Centre in Udwada, Gujarat, where the early families had settled. They had put up a Centre without much ado in a few years. In Kodagu, however, even when building plans and the funds were in hands by 2004, the District Administration took a good six years to locate a suitable plot for the Centre.

It was important that the Centre be located where maximum footfalls could be ensured. Madikeri was therefore the best location. Work started at the site for the Centre near the Golf Course, Mercara Downs and was expected to be completed by 2012-13.

Thereafter, bureaucratic apathy and the negligence of contractors have resulted in the project being in a limbo even after ten years.

The last two lady Deputy Commissioners (DCs) in Kodagu did take a lot of interest in the project. I also understand that our elected representatives from Kodagu have evinced keen interest to see the project through. The President of the Kodava Samaja in Madikeri has also visited the site. So, with all this recent interest and promise I hope we can expect the Kodava Heritage Centre to be completed soon.

There is a lot to be done and institutions like the Kodava Samaja and other youth organisations based in Kodagu could take the lead. It is a project that will need to be steered on a public-private partnership mode with our elected representatives in the lead.

While there is hope there are also other challenges to be met. The construction that has dragged on for so long and been through four severe monsoon years needs to be certified for structural stability and fitted with appropriate spaces that a museum and library etc., would need. The planning of the interiors of the museum and other spaces will need considerable thought and expertise. All this would need more funds and commitment. It is only if the local stakeholders take an active interest will all this be achieved.

In a recent interview with the Star of Mysore, I had said that our Samajas and Kodava youth organisations based in Kodagu must make plans and meet the DC of Kodagu to take this idea forward. They need to be united in their mission and speak in one voice. I am sure, with all this push we will have a Kodava Heritage Centre up and running in the near future."

NOTE: *SOM appreciates Rathi Vinay Jha's optimism but to say that the DC and the elected representatives from Kodagu 'have evinced keen interest' etc., is simply being polite. Otherwise there would not be a 'black listing' of a contractor and also a Court case in this regard. The question is: Will Kodavas in Kodagu learn from the Parsis in matters such as this one at least?—Ed

Tusker Kusha heading back to Dubare from Bandipur

Radio collar movement tracked by Wildlife Institute of India, Dehradun

Kushalnagar, Dec. 2 (Akshay &BCT)- Kusha, the wild-captured-tamed-recaptured elephant from Dubare Elephant Camp in Kodagu that was released into the Bandipur Tiger Reserve in June this year after a relentless campaign by animal lovers and following the intervention of former Union Environment Minister and sitting MP Maneka Gandhi is heading back to Dubare, its home turf.

He has already travelled 200 kilometres and has reached Nagarahole National Park. He is likely to take the Thithimathi-Maldare route to reach Dubare. The tusker was radio-collared and released into Bandipur Tiger Reserve in June. Kusha's movement is being tracked by project scientists from Wildlife Institute of India (WWI) at Dehradun.

Though Kusha's release was welcomed by conservationists, they are not happy with the fact that he was released in Bandipur, a territory that is unfamiliar to him.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, sources from WWI said that Kusha's movement is being closely watched. In six months, from Bandipur, Kusha travelled to Wayanad and now he is at Kabini range of the Nagarahole National Park. Elephants are known to migrate across 350-500 sq. km. annually.

"It has not directly headed towards Dubare and it is not a 'homecoming'. However, the tusker is travelling and has reached Nagarahole now. It may come to Dubare or may not. But its path cannot be visualised now at this moment. Maybe after some months, we will know," the source said without wishing to be named. Once it is back in Dubare, it is up to the Forest Department either to relocate it or to retain it in Dubare, the source added.

The 29-year-old jumbo was released at Moolehole Range of Bandipur Tiger Reserve, more than 150 kilometres from Dubare. He was radio-collared and was transported on a quick action force elephant truck.

Kusha was captured by the Kodagu Forest Department four years ago from Chettalli along with another elephant named Luv. After taming him at Dubare Elephant Camp, he was put to routine work of the Department for over three years. However, he escaped from the camp when he was in 'musth' and was traced after more than one year along with a mate. He was recaptured and brought to Dubare and was re-tamed months back. Following a hue and cry and ethical questions over Kusha being separated from his mate and the intervention of Maneka Gandhi, the Forest Department ordered the tusker to be released after radio-collaring.

Nagarahole Project Tiger Director D. Mahesh Kumar told SOM that they do not have the radio collar tracking mechanism and the facility is available only in Dehradun. "Yes, we have information that Kusha reached Nagarahole last week and so far we have not sighted him. We will act as per the information provided by the Dehradun team," he added.

Video of 'plot' to kill BJP MLA creates flutter

Potential assassins hired from Andhra Pradesh, alleges Yelahanka MLA S.R. Vishwanath

MLA Vishwanath

Bengaluru, Dec 2 (UNI)- A major controversy has erupted in Karnataka after the emergence of some videos, which feature Congress leader Belur Gopalakrishna and have voices of two men who are purportedly talking about plans to get BJP MLA S.R. Vishwanath killed. The Police have started investigation after Vishwanath lodged a complaint.

Karnataka Home Minister Araga Jnanendra said Vishwanath has spoken to him and that the Government will consider providing security to the MLA. Bengaluru City Police Commissioner Kamal Pant said investigation is going on and the guilty will be punished. The Crime Branch of Police has summoned Devaraja and has taken him to an undisclosed location for interrogation.

The videos, said to have been made six months ago, have conversations in Kannada language. The clippings feature Gopalakrishna and one Kulla Devaraja, who is said to have shot the videos. It is not independently verified whether the voice in the videos is that of Gopalakrishna, who could not be reached for his comments as his mobile phone was switched off. Interestingly, Vishwanath said he was told about the alleged 'plot' by Devaraja, who claimed to have refused to execute the "plan".

What's in the clipping?

In one of the clippings, the Congress leader purportedly tells Devaraja, "I will not mind spending Rs. 50 lakh to Rs. 1 crore but we will finish off Vishwanath. I will make arrangements for the 'supari' from a rich person and make a plan to finish him off."

Devaraja also hears: "The MLA visits his farm house every day between 6 am and 7 am. At that time, the MLA will be alone and that is the good time to finish him off.... But my name should not appear anywhere. If you succeed in executing the plan, I will give you more money. If not, you have to return the advance."

"...The plan should be executed with precaution. Don't hurry. Take your time. Even if it takes you six months, so be it, but execute the plan carefully by gathering the boys." Devaraja is also purportedly told that the killers would be saved with the help of Deputy Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, Police Commissioner and even the Chief Secretary.

Responding, Devaraja is purportedly heard saying, "The boys will have to be filtered and they should not be having liquor and ganja with them. There are three teams, out of which we will select one to execute the plan... "I will arrange for boys from Andhra Pradesh who are right now in Puducherry. I will also hire sharpshooters. We have to make arrangements for their stay. If you say yes, pay me some money in advance."

Rs. 20 lakh advance paid

In the second video, Gopalakrishna is seen giving wades of currency to Devaraja, telling him purportedly that the amount is Rs. 20 lakh advance. In the third video, Devaraja is heard saying that "the boys had visited Vishwanath's farm house at 7 am, but returned after not finding anyone there." A reply comes: "It is okay. Wait for one or two days more and finish the job... " In the fourth video, Devaraja purportedly asks the Congress leader to give him more money as advance. In reply, he hears: "You have not executed the plan yet ... After you execute it, I will give 100 times more than what I had given you as advance."

Taking cognisance of the video clippings, Vishwanath lodged a complaint with Rajanukunte Police Station. Addressing a press meet, Vishwanath said he has spoken to Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and sought a thorough investigation.

Vishwanath alleged that the potential assassins were hired from Andhra Pradesh and stayed at Shreyas Hotel in Yelahanka. He also said that the threat on his life was looming large from the past few years.

Slew of protests in city

In yet another protest at the DC Office, members of Mysuru District Unit of Mahanayaka Rakshana Vedike, in association with Pragatipara Raitha Sanghatane, staged a demonstration accusing Mysuru Minerals (Pvt.) Ltd., of unauthorised mining in the agricultural lands of farmers.

Charging the Company of encroaching upon farm lands for carrying out Bauxite mining activities in various Survey numbers coming under Karya, Chamanamadahalli and Kurihundi villages of Hullahalli Hobli in Nanjangud taluk, the protestors urged the Government to order a probe into the alleged illegal mining activities and to take action against officials and all others who were supporting the Company.

Vedike State President Daitya Raju, office-bearers Prasanna Kumar, M. Prasanna Kumar, R.P. Nanjundaswamy, Swamy, Mahadevaiah and others led the protestors.

In the fourth protest, over 50 members of SUCI (Socialist Unity Centre of India) staged a demonstration in front of CESC Office on Sriharsha Road seeking repeal of Electricity (Amendment) Bill, 2021.

Maintaining that the passing of the Bill will cause a steep hike in power prices, privatisation of the power sector and monopoly in power production, transmission and distribution, they urged the Union Government not to introduce the Bill in the Parliament and instead repeal it in the better interests of power consumers.

SUCI office-bearer B.Ravi and others took part.

60 mts work on Irwin Road

There were 84 properties on the road and the demolition of two properties is pending. "Rs. 38 crore was set aside as compensation and Rs. 27 crore has been paid already. Rs. 3 crore has been reserved for the building owned by the advocate and Rs. 2 crore will be paid to the management of Panchamukhi Anjaneyaswamy Temple and Rs. 3 crore will be paid to the Central Library. The properties owned by the Temple and the Library have already been demolished and only the payment has to be made to them," he explained.

Irwin Road is one of the busiest roads in city that connects the suburban bus stand to Railway Station. But it is also choked with vehicles, given the dense commercial growth along the stretch, thus making road expansion difficult. Now with only 60 metres of the works pending, it has become a bottleneck for vehicles.

National workshop

on "Anti-Microbial Resistance in Food Chain" held at CFTRI

Dr. M.N. Sumana, Professor and former Head of Microbiology Department, JSS Hospital and Medical College; Dr. V.S. Chauhan, Chief Scientist and Head, Plant Cell Biotechnology Department, CFTRI and Dr. Prakash M. Halami, Organising Secretary and Head, Department of Microbiology and Fermentation Technology, CFTRI, seen during the workshop at CFTRI.

Mysuru, Dec. 2- A two-day National workshop on "Anti-Microbial Resistance (AMR) in Food Chain" was held at the Department of Microbiology and Fermentation Technology, CSIR-Central Food Technological Research Institute (CSIR-CFTRI) on Nov. 25 and 26.

This workshop was sponsored by Department of Health Research, Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR), New Delhi, under its Human Resource Development programme.

The workshop was virtually inaugurated by Dr. Abdul Gaffur Professor, Apollo Hospital & Co-ordinator - AMR, Chennai Declaration in the presence of Dr. M.N. Sumana, Professor and former Head of Microbiology Department, JSS Hospital and Medical College, Mysuru, Dr. V.S. Chauhan, Chief Scientist and Head, Plant Cell Biotechnology Department, CFTRI and Dr. Prakash M. Halami, Organising Secretary and Head of MFT Department, CSIR-CFTRI.

Dr. Abdul Gaffur, in his inaugural address, stressed on judicious use of antibiotics and proper stewardship programme in combating anti-microbial resistance in food chain.

Chennai Declaration

In his subsequent lecture, he highlighted the importance of Chennai Declaration, National action plan enforcement by Government of India for combating anti-microbial research and its implementation in the country.

The major threat caused by colistin resistance in food chain was seriously reviewed by Dr. Gaffur through his own scientific evidences and he advised the rational usage of antibiotics in veterinary, fishery and poultry field.

Dr. Sumana highlighted the importance of general awareness to combat the spread of anti-microbial resistance among public. She spoke about the initiative taken by her research group in combating anti-microbial resistance through molecular studies and one health approach.

Dr. I Karunasagar, Retired FAO Expert, spoke about anti-microbial reservoir in fishery involvement.

Dr. Anand Kumar, Professor and Head, Veterinary Microbiology, NTR College of Veterinary Science, Gannavaram, Andhra Pradesh, gave an overview about development of anti-microbial resistance in food chain through animal feed.

Panel discussion

A panel discussion was organised in the topic to deliberate how AMR can be stopped especially with reference to its growing menace in food chain.

The experts from different parts of country joined online to participate in panel discussion. Views by each panellist were shared on the topic and the questions raised by the participants were discussed.

Practical session was organised to give hands-on experience to all the participants. In addition, demonstration on simpler AMR evaluation in bacteria, anti-microbial residue analysis was also organised during the two-day workshop.

In the poster presentation session, participants had opportunity to present their research findings. Out of 35 registered participants, 25 were physically present during the workshop which coincided with WHO's programme on World Antimicrobial Awareness Week.

Certificates and prizes were distributed to poster presenters.

Dalits and OBCs moving towards BJP, claims K.S. Eshwarappa

BJP OBC Morcha meeting of Mysuru Region held in city

Mysuru, Dec.2 (RKB&DM)- Maintaining that Dalits and OBCs (Other Backward Classes) are upset with the Congress, Rural Development and Panchayat Raj (RDPR) Minister K.S. Eshwarappa said that these communities are now moving towards BJP for their development.

He was addressing a BJP OBC Morcha meeting of Mysuru Region at Dasara Exhibition Grounds here yesterday.

Alleging that the Congress had neglected the Dalits and OBCs in its 70-year rule, Eshwarappa said that such negligence has cost the Congress dearly as it has been thrown out of power at the Centre and in most of the States.

Stating that the Congress has drawn a blank in the recently held Tripura civic polls, he asserted that the Congress would not win any elections in the near future. He called upon the BJP workers to work for a better organisation of backward communities.

Accusing former Chief Minister and Opposition Leader Siddharamaiah of misleading the people in respect of caste census, Eshwarappa contended that the former Chief Minister would not remain in the Congress for long if he was not given any power.

Referring to the new-found bonhomie between Siddharamaiah and MLA G.T. Devegowda (GTD), Eswharappa said that GTD must not forget that he was elected from Chamundeshwari in the last Assembly elections as all sections supported him for ensuring the defeat of Siddharamaiah.

Highlighting the reasons for Siddharamaiah's defeat from Chamundeshwari, he asked GTD not to become an opportunist politician by joining hands with the Congress leader.

Eshwarappa further said that the BJP is not scared of the possibility of Siddharamaiah and GTD coming together. He also called upon OBC communities to educate their children as it is vital for their growth.

BJP OBC Morcha State President N.L. Narendrababu, office-bearers Suresh Babu, Kotresh and Jogi Manju, City BJP President T.S. Srivatsa, District President Mangala Somashekar, KEA Chairman Hemanth Kumar Gowda and others were present at the meet.

BJP and JD(S) plotting to finish off former CM Siddharamaiah

Mysuru, Dec.2 (GA&DM)- Accusing the BJP and the JD(S) of plotting to finish off former Chief Minister and senior Congress leader Siddharamaiah politically, former Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa said that, however, the plot is bound to fail as the Congress would win most seats in the Legislative Council polls that is scheduled to take place on Dec.10.

He was addressing a Congress Party poll rally for the MLC elections at Kergalli in the taluk on Wednesday.

Asserting that Siddharamaiah worked for the welfare of Dalits, Backward Classes and all other marginalised sections of the society when he was the Chief Minister, Dr. Mahadevappa said the ruling BJP has been unfairly targeting Siddharamaiah.

Claiming that all attempts by the BJP and the JD(S) to embarrass Siddharamaiah would fail, the former Minister claimed that Chamundeshwari JD(S) MLA G.T. Devegowda's supporters have expressed support to the Congress in the Legislative Council polls.

He appealed the electorate to cast only their first preference votes in favour of Congress candidate Dr. D. Thimmaiah and not to think about second preferential vote. Arguing that the MLC polls are an indicator of the 2023 Assembly polls, he contended that the Congress was sure of returning to power in 2023.

JD(S) lodges complaint against District Minister

Mysuru, Dec.2- Upset over the remarks made by District Minister S.T. Somashekar that C.N. Manjegowda, the JD(S) candidate for the Legislative Council polls from Local Authorities Constituency for the dual-member Mysuru-Chamarajanagar seat, was an accused in the kidney sale scam, the JD(S) has lodged a complaint with Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham, seeking registration of an FIR against the Minister.

JD(S) Legal Cell Head N.R. Ravichandregowda, in his complaint lodged with the DC, said that the District Minister has made loose and baseless remarks against the JD(S) candidate during the poll campaign.

Claiming that such personal and loose remarks made without any proof are a violation of poll code of conduct, Ravichandregowda contended that an FIR be registered against the Minister for his unparliamentary and objectionable language against the party's poll candidate.

Party leaders Mallesh and Shailendra were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Menorah

Pronunciation: muh-NOR-uh.
Meaning: A menorah is a candelabra with seven or nine lights that is used in Jewish worship.
Origin: In English, menorah was originally the name for the seven-branched candelabra used in Jewish worship. The nine-branched Hanukkah candelabra is called hanukkiah in Hebrew, but English speakers came to use menorah for this too. The Hanukkah menorah recalls expulsion by Judah Maccabee of invading forces from the Temple of Jerusalem. Maccabee and his followers sought oil for the temple's menorah so that the sanctuary could be rededicated, but they found only enough oil for a single day. Miraculously, that tiny amount of oil burned for eight days, until a new supply could be obtained. The Hanukkah menorah includes a candle for each day the oil burned, plus the shammes, a "servant candle" that is used to light the others.
Example: "The world's largest menorah went up in Manhattan on Tuesday and will be lit on Thursday after sundown...." — ABC7 (New York)

THE ODD WORD

Magnality

Wonderful or great thing.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Zip your lip

Meaning: The phrase 'zip your lip' is used to say that one should remain silent or keep a secret.
Origin: The original phrase was " button your lips' but as zippers came into fashion this phrase was modified to 'zip your lip'.
Example: "I zipped my lip at yesterday's meeting, as there was no point in saying anything."

Isha Foundation to offer 'Yogakshema' to prison inmates

Bengaluru, Dec. 2 (UNI)- Isha Foundation and Karnataka Government have joined hands to implement 'Yogakshema' programme for prison inmates with an aim to enhance their physical and mental health.

"The initiative will offer simple, but powerful yogic practices in the prison ecosystem, with an aim of enhancing physical, mental and emotional health of staff and inmates by offering programmes for self-transformation," Isha Foundation Spokesperson said here on Wednesday.

All yogic practices offered through 'Yogakshema' have been designed by Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev, Founder-Isha Foundation. These yoga sessions will be conducted with strict adherence to the mandated social distancing protocols due to the pandemic.

Staff and inmates in 14 prisons will be covered in this initiative which is part of a larger project envisioned by Dr. Alok Mohan, Director General of Police, Prisons and Correctional Services, in a bid to make the prison ecosystem a more humane and transformative space rather than a purely penal centre.

Yoga and meditation programmes for physical and emotional well-being as well as skill development programmes are being offered, in 50 prisons across Karnataka, as part of Dr. Mohan's initiative.

Isha Foundation is offering its 'Yogakshema' programme in 14 of them covering approximately 4,000 people. The initiative was inaugurated yesterday in 14 Prisons, where one-hour sessions will be conducted every day for inmates and staff.

Isha Yoga teachers and volunteers, community leaders and social influencers participated in large numbers at the inaugural programme.

Sharing their challenges, the prison inmates said they are looking forward to these sessions which would enable a deeper and more profound experience of life.

'Yogakshema' includes 'Yoga Namaskar,' a simple 3-minute process that brings balance and stability to the body and mind. It strengthens the spine, considered in Yoga to be the most significant part of the human anatomy for its ability to enhance one's sensitivity, perception and experience of life. Other practices include 'Nadi Shuddhi' that cleanses the energy pathways (nadis) in the system to instil a deep sense of peace.
